Cate Blanchett stars in “Mrs. America,” premiering Wednesday on FX on Hulu.

Here she comes, ‘Mrs. America,’ in Cate Blanchett-starring FX on Hulu series

“Gold Digger” (Acorn TV — series premiere, May 4)

Julia Ormond (“The Curious Case of Benjamin Button,” “Howard’s End”) stars as an older woman who has spent her entire life of 60 years taking care of others. When she finally finds happiness, her family is troubled. Is the man (Ben Barnes, “Westworld”) that’s she’s fallen in love with her happily-ever-after or does he have a hidden agenda since he’s 25 years younger?

‘Mrs. America’ recalls the roots of the feminist movement

BY JAY BOBBIN

Such names as Gloria Steinem, Betty Friedan and Phyllis Schlafly have very particular places in U.S. social history.

Those women played various roles in regard to the Equal Rights Amendment, which the famously conservative Schlafly opposed while making a bid for a House of Representatives seat as the 1970s began. She had a major opponent in author and activist Friedan, one of the principal feminists of the era – and that battleground is dramatized in “Mrs. America,” which debuts by streaming the first three of its nine episodes Wednesday, April 15, on FX on Hulu.

Also an executive producer of the project, Oscar winner Cate Blanchett stars as Schlafly, with Emmy recipient Tracey Ullman and Rose Byrne respectively playing Friedan and Steinem. With Emmy winner Margo Martindale (“The Americans”) and Uzo Aduba (“Orange Is the New Black”) as politicians Bella Abzug and Shirley Chisholm, the cast of “Mrs. America” also includes Sarah Paulson, Elizabeth Banks, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Melanie Lynskey, Ari Graynor and John Slattery (“Mad Men”).

“Phyllis herself didn’t initially have an issue with the Equal Rights Amendment,” Blanchett maintains. “She thought it was a piece of fairly innocuous political business, and her primary focus was defense. That was her passion; that was her area of research and her focus. It wasn’t really until – as described in our series – her friend Alice (played by Paulson) turned her on to what were called ‘the dangers of the ERA’ that meant that women could be drafted. I think it was through the concept of its impact it would have, from her perspective, on the military that she got involved.”

As the piece’s Friedan, Ullman reports that “it was really hard to get this role. I did really want to be a part of this. I started as a dramatic actress in theater and (since), of course, I have done lots of comedy shows – but I’ve always portrayed real people, real heart. I like the poignancy and reality and sadness of people, and I’ve been in America for 30 years. I know people like Betty Friedan. It struck me how incredible it was to write a book like (Friedan’s) ‘The Feminine Mystique’ in 1963.”

The makers of “Mrs. America” also include veteran studio executive Stacey Sher and “Captain Marvel” filmmaking partners Anna Boden and Ryan Fleck. The latter duo directed the limited series’ first two episodes, and Boden reasons, “I don’t think any of the actors in the cast did an impersonation. They did a lot of research, and they’re all like the most studious actors I’ve ever worked with. They put us to shame … in terms of how they tried to embody the characters and their complexities.”
What’s Available NOW On NETFLIX

“The Innocence Files”
This nine-episode documentary series from executive producers Liz Garbus, Alex Gibney and Roger Ross Williams spotlights the personal stories behind eight cases of wrongful conviction that the nonprofit organization the Innocence Project and organizations within the Innocence Network have uncovered and worked to overturn.

“Outer Banks”
A group of teen friends are forced to make life-altering decisions when a hurricane cuts the power to their coastal North Carolina community for the summer in this coming-of-age story from executive producers/showrunners Jonas Pate, Josh Pate and Shannon Burke. Chase Stokes, Madelyn Cline, Rudy Pankow, Jonathan Daviss, Madison Bailey and Charles Esten head the cast. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Sergio”
Wagner Moura, who gained critical raves for his portrayal of Medellin Cartel kingpin Pablo Escobar in the first season of “Narcos,” goes to the other side of the law in this true drama movie in which he stars as U.N. diplomat Brazilian diplomat Sérgio Vieira De Mello, who becomes trapped by a bombing after taking one last assignment in Baghdad just after the U.S. invasion in 2003. Bradley Whitford, Ana de Armas and Bryan F. O’Byrne also star for director Greg Barker (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Earth and Blood”
From France comes this 2020 action movie from director Julien Leclercq (“The Bouncer”) about a man and his daughter, who run a family sawmill business in the mountains hiring mostly ex-convicts and young offenders. Carole Weyers, Eriq Ebouaney and Sami Bouajila head the cast.

In the new episode “We Love Lucy,” after Will (Eric McCormack) tells Grace (Debra Messing) that living with her makes him feel like Ricky Ricardo with wife Lucille, Jack and Karen (Sean Hayes, Megan Mullally) each insist that they are the Lucy in this group dynamic. The notion sends Grace, Karen and Jack into daydreams in which each plays Lucy, with Will as their long-suffering Ricky. Leslie Jordan and Lucie Arnaz guest star.

On a sweltering day that is shaping up to be the hottest of this season, Troy Landry and Terral Evans try to lure monster hunters into shady areas using cold-blooded beef melt in the new episode “Swamp on Fire.” In another area, when the beasts refuse to bite, Willie Edwards teaches his son to step into the minds of some of the worst mass murderers to date, opens its second season with the premiere “Killer Caller.” Minnesota police hunt for a killer who confesses he’s string of murders in a chilling, high-pitched voice, begging for forgiveness. None of the investigators is able to identify him, until they get a break via one woman who survives a brutal attack.

“Bosch”
The sixth season of this drama series finds Los Angeles Detective Harry Bosch (Titus Welliver) in the middle of a complex murder investigation in which a medical physicist was executed and the deadly radioactive material he had with him went missing. Jamie Hector and Madison Lintz are also cast returnees. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Valiant”
From director Cruz Angeles (“The Mind of a Murderer”) comes this feature length documentary that follows the Vegas Golden Knights during their inaugural season of 2017-18, one that began with a mass shooting at a music festival on the Vegas Strip and ended eight months later with a Stanley Cup title. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Good Morning, Killer”
This 2016 thriller movie stars Catherine Bell (“JAG,” “Good Witch”) as an undercover FBI special agent on the trail of a serial kidnapper who suddenly changes his pattern as she develops a rapport with his latest victim. Titus Welliver (“Bosch”), Suleka Mathew (“Claws”) and Cole Hauser (“Yellowstone”) also star for director Maggie Greenwald (“Songcatcher”).

“Movie: Abduction”
Trying to build on his stardom as the lupine Jacob in the “Twilight” movies, Taylor Lautner starred in this 2011 melodrama from director John Singleton about a young man who goes on the lam with a friend (Lily Collins) when he finds out that he was kidnapped as a youngster. Determined to uncover his true past, he’s pursued by forces both friendly and not-so-much. Sigourney Weaver, Alfred Molina and Maria Bello also star.

“Natalie Wood: What Remains Behind” (HBO — documentary premiere, May 5)
Interviews, home movies, photographs and diaries offer insight into the remarkable life and career of actress Natalie Wood. Her daughter, Natasha Gregson Wagner, provides her unique perspective, as do others who knew her best. To this day, Wood’s tragic death at age 43, remains an unsolved mystery.

8 p.m. on WPBT Call the Midwife

When a ward sister is off sick, Lucille (Leonie Elliott) is seconded to St. Cuthbert’s, where she encounters hostility from expectant mother Connie Blair, who is on grudging bed rest after her waters break early. Elsewhere, Phyllis (Linda Bassett) tries to help an immigrant mother with an alarming medical condition. On a lighter note, Shelagh and Trixie (Laura Main, Helen George) put on a fashion show fundraiser.

8 p.m. on A&E Biography: Dolly

This new two-hour special offers an affectionate portrait of Dolly Parton, one of country music’s most beloved singers and songwriters, by nature a very private woman, although her songs often include lyrics that reveal a great deal. In addition to exclusive interviews with Parton herself, the film also includes commentary from many of her musicians, co-writers and producers. The documentary also explores why Parton, despite her down-home persona, is widely regarded by industry professionals as one of the most important songwriters of modern times.

9 p.m. on WFOR NCIS: Los Angeles

Callen, Sam (Chris O’Donnell), LL Cool J and the rest of the NCIS team step up to assist the Department of Justice with an investigation after an arsonist targets an FBI safe house that’s currently the home of a political activist seeking asylum in a new episode called “Knock Down.” Daniela Ruah, Eric Christian Olsen and Barrett Foa also star.

9 p.m. on AMC Killing Eve

As Season 3 of this multi-award-winning action drama (simulcast on AMC) opens, the assassin Villanelle (Jodie Comer) is under the distinct impression that she fatally shot her quarry, ex-MI6 operative Eve Polastri (Sandra Oh), during the Season 2 finale set in Rome. As viewers quickly learn, however, Eve survived that attack, although her current status with MI6 remains a bit hazy. Fiona Shaw also stars; new faces for Season 3 include Harriet Walter (“Succession”), Danny Sapani (Hu’s “Har- lots” series), Gemma Whelan (“Game of Thrones”) and Steve Pemberton (“The League of Gentlemen”).
The Bachelor franchise looks to guest star in the new episode "Randy's a Wrangler," Dottie (Christine Eberwine) forges a meaningful connection when she encounters a fellow stroke survivor, Hank (guest star John Ratzenberger), at physical therapy. Meanwhile, Bob and Douglas (Billy Gardell, Matt Jones) try to keep tabs on Christina (Mari Beth Monroe) while she's away at an emotional wellness spa. Foliage Otowofuyoka and Vernee Watson also star.

9 p.m. on WFOR
All Rise
After she nearly has another breakdown, Emily (Jessica Camacho) has a sobering epiphany in the new episode "Merrily We Ride Along." A concerned Lola (Simone Missick) urges him to seek out some professional help in their desire to get healthier. Elsewhere, Lola faces a financial crisis as she learns that Robin (recurring guest star Todd Williams) didn't get the job he was seeking in Los Angeles, and Mark (Wilson Bethel) comes to regret agreeing to do a police ride-along.

10:01 p.m. on WTVJ
Songland
This hit reality competition, which gives viewers a glimpse into the process of finding the next hit song, returns to start its sophomore season, as undiscovered songwriters pitch their original material to major guest-artists and three of today's most sought-after songwriters: Ryan Tedder, who has worked with Adele and Taylor Swift; Ester Dean (Rihanna and Nicki Minaj) and Shane McAnally (Kely Clark Thrasher). The show will also feature major hits from the songwriters to adapt their songs to fit the featured artist, after which one song is chosen for recording.
In a new episode called “The Arizona,” Gibbs (Mark Harmon) and his team try to verify the true identity of an elderly man known as Joe Smith (guest star Christopher Lloyd), who claims he used his older brother’s ID to serve on the USS Arizona during the attack on Pearl Harbor. Now, it’s his devour wish to be buried there upon his death. Sean Murray, Emily Wickersham and Wilmer Valderrama also star.

For the first time in this show’s history, Season 16 — which premieres tonight with a two-hour episode — will see the Alaskan crab fleet facing against their biggest commercial rivals: the Russians, who are making some changes to fishing regulations that seem likely to send the price of King Crab skyrocketing. The season also spells a big shake-up for Captain Jake Anderson on The Garage. Now “The Hurricane” (1999, Drama) Denzel Washington.death. Sean Murray, Emily Wick- ish wish to be buried there upon his death. Joe Smith (guest star Christopher Lloyd).

When she learns that climate scientists predict the planet’s ozone layer will run out in 20 years, Rain- bow (Alica Himmel) freaks out and immediately tries to stage an Earth Day event at her school to change some hearts and minds in the new episode “Nothing’s Gonna Stop Us Now.” Instead, she runs into some surprising resistance, but that only motivates her to take matters into her own hands.
